

All Shall Be Well, Noël

"All shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well."
— Julian of Norwich

Adam Brooks Webber
adambrookswebber.com

mp

1. Breathe in deep, sigh it out slow - ly.
2. Close your eyes, rest in the dark - ness.
3. Still your thought, qui - et your ques - tions.

Breathe in deep and see: _____ a star comes down be - Close your eyes and see: _____ you feel the love of Still your thought and see: _____ in si - lence comes a fore your eyes, and just like that, you re - a - lize:

God ar - rive, and just like that, you come a - live:
new - born voice, and just like that, you make your choice:

cresc.

all shall be well, all shall be well,

f, last time, end

all shall be well, No - ël! - ël!