

Not So Wise Are We

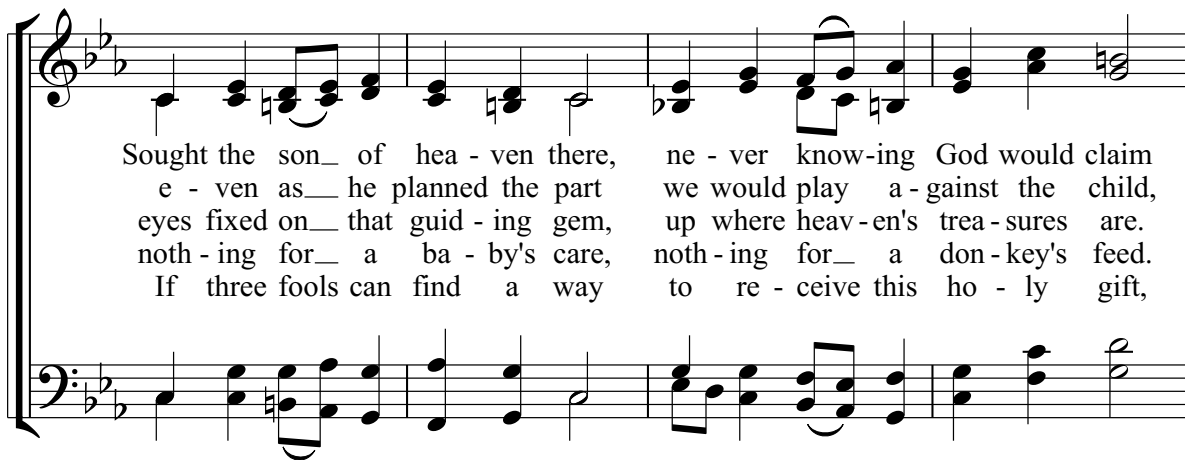

Adam Brooks Webber
adambrookswEBBER.com

1. To the pal - ace fine and fair, borne on ca - mel back we came.
2. Ne - ver doubt - ed He - rod's heart. "Wel - come, bro - ther kings!" he smiled,
3. Tra - veled on___ to Beth - le - hem, fol - low - ing___ our shi - ning star,
4. Myrrh we brought, and in - cense rare; noth - ing for___ their pre - sent need,
5. Stum - bling now,___ we kneel and pray; hum - bling hopes our spi - rits lift.

hum - ble birth___ in po - ver - ty. Not so wise___ are deal - ing death___ in in - fan - cy. Not so wise___ are Left our trail___ for all to see. Not so wise___ are Still they thanked us gra - cious - ly. Not so wise___ are so can all___ hu - ma - ni - ty. Wise e - nough are Sought the son___ of hea - ven there, ne - ver know - ing God would claim e - ven as___ he planned the part we would play a - gainst the child, eyes fixed on___ that guid - ing gem, up where heav - en's trea - sures are.

noth - ing for___ a ba - by's care, noth - ing for___ a don - key's feed.
If three fools can find a way to re - ceive this ho - ly gift,

we, my bro - thers, not so wise___ are we.
we, my bro - thers, not so wise___ are we.
we, my bro - thers, not so wise___ are we.
we, my bro - thers, not so wise___ are we.
we, oh child - ren, wise e - nough are we.