

The Inn of God's Forgiveness

From The Inn of God's Forgiveness and Other Hymns for the Progressive Church Adam Brooks Webber adambrookswEBBER.com

From the Inn a light is stream - ing like the an - swer to a
At the Inn there is a foun - tain, and for wash - ing there's a Those who stand be - fore the door there, feel - ing tired and in - se - It's the Inn of God's for - give - ness, with out pay - ment, with out prayer, as a shin - ing in - vit - a - tion to the wel - come wait - ing pool; it has heal - ing heat in win - ter, and in sum - mer, sooth ing cure, from with - in hear words of wel - come that re - fresh and re - as - price; no do - na - tion, com pen - sa - tion, or ob - la - tion could suf - there. Oh, the kit - chen's al - ways op - en, and your tab - le's al - ways cool. Oh, it bub - bles up for drink - ing when you're suf - fer - ing from sure. Ev - ery pro - di - gal re - turn - ing is em - phat - ical - ly em - fice. Where the kind - ly light is shin - ing let us knock up - on the free, and the com - pa - ny is thirst, and it spends it - self so braced, ev - ery fool - ish - ness for - door; let the Inn of God's for - pleas - ant, and there's nev - er an - y fee. free - ly that it can't be re - im - bursed.

got - ten, ev - ery in - ju - ry e - rased.
give - ness be our home for ev - er more!