

Welcome, Thomas, Doubts and All

From The Inn of God's Forgiveness and Other Hymns for the Progressive Church Adam Brooks Webber
adambrookswEBBER.com

A D F#m Bm

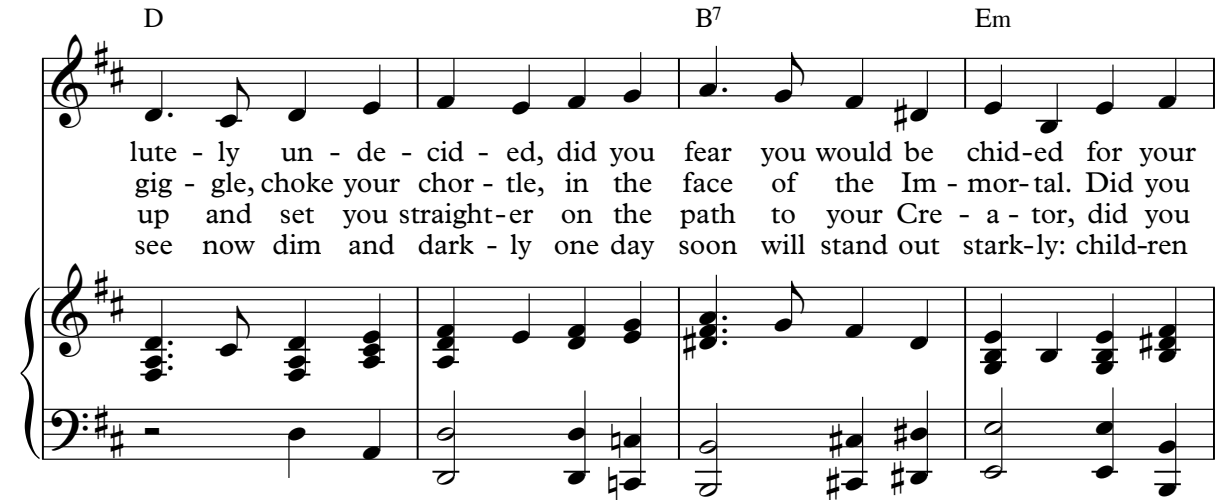

1. Wel-come, Thom-as, doubts and all! Peace be with you in this hall! Caut-ious
2. Wel-come, Sar-ah, nev-er fear! Laugh-ter too is wel-come here! You were
3. Wel-come, Jon-ah, home at last, all your trials and trou-bles past! When you 4. Wel-come, friends and neighbors all! Though we stumble, trip, and fall, though our think-er, you con-clud-ed all your friends were so de-lud-ed! Res-o-quick, but God was quick-er when you tried to hide your snick-er, gag your fled from your vo-ca-tion, when that friend-ly old ce-ta-cean coughed you blun-der-ing be chron-ic, though our wis-dom em-bry-on-ic, what we

Em G C A

D B7 Em

lute-ly un-de-cid-ed, did you fear you would be chid-ed for your gig-gle, choke your chor-tle, in the face of the Im-mor-tal. Did you up and set you straight-er on the path to your Cre-a-tor, did you see now dim and dark-ly one day soon will stand out stark-ly: child-ren stub-born skep-tic soul? Wel-come Thom-as, be made whole! fear you'd made a gaffe? We-come Sar-ah, free to laugh! fear God's love would cease? We-come Jon-ah, be at peace!

Em A D A D

of the One are we! Sis-ter, bro-ther, bless-ed be!